

Recommendation Form

A recommendation for an application for admission to the Graduate Certificate of Ministry Development. The Graduate Certificate of Ministry Development is an award intended for enabling the ministry of clergy to be enhanced in facets of ministry that are best developed while in the practice of vocational ministry.

Typically, graduates are likely to be holders of a prior theological degree or diploma with at least five years ministry experience who seek to serve others in a formal or informal capacity as a pastoral supervisor or ministry coach, and to continue their own ministry development.
